Dear Sir:

Will you kindly let me know whether an old piece of paper money bearing the name of G. Washington would be of any special value, and about what it might be sold for if genuine.

If you cannot answer this question could you refer me to some reliable person to whom I could make inquiry.

Very sincerely
Miss A. Brown.

Dear Madam:-

Your letter of the 19th at hand. We can not tell you anything about the piece unless we see it. If you care to bring it in here any day I would be glad to tell you what I know about it, but you had better phone so as to be sure that I am here.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
